'A really good team': Christi and Mark Neroni running a business together

Pittsburgh Business Times - by Ben Semmes

When Mark Neroni tells friends and family that he gave his wife, Christi, an attorney, the idea to start her own company and hire him as an employee, the response is universal.

You're crazy, they tell him.

"That's by far and away the comment we get," said Neroni, who was born and raised in Greene County and worked for years as an independent title abstractor out of the couple's home in Franklin Park in the North Hills.

Unlike many people who couldn't imagine working side-by-side with their spouse, that's exactly what the Neronis did.
