Martha Graham, Sponsorship Dir.
CREW Pittsburgh

Area of Specialization: Commercial real estate sales and leasing, and development.

Biography: Martha has been in the real estate industry for 20 years.

She joined Massaro in October 2001 as a leasing agent responsible for marketing and leasing of the Massaro portfolio which consists of 750,000 square feet of office space in the Pittsburgh area. She also helped to establish the then newly formed full service real estate brokerage business. She represents clients in all segments of the market including office, warehouse and retail.

She has previous experience as an independent contractor in the residential market representing buyers and sellers and new construction. Martha was issued a Pennsylvania Real Estate License in 1989 and her Real Estate Brokers license in 2004. She has handled all aspects of the transaction including marketing, advertising, negotiating, inspections, and closings.

She has previously served on the CREW Pittsburgh board of directors as Events Director in 2007 and 2008.
